Eligibility Criteria for Community Supports

- Enrolled as a Kaiser Permanente Medi-Cal member
- Meets criteria for one or more of the Community Supports established by the Department of Health Care Services

Kaiser Permanente determines if the member meets eligibility criteria for the services requested, authorizes the member for services if eligible, and engages community-based partners to initiate services.

What is a Community Health Worker (CHW)?

Background

- Community Health Worker (CHW) services became a Medi-Cal benefit in 2022. DHCS has broad eligibility guidelines.

What is a CHW?

- Non-licensed frontline worker embedded in communities where our members live
- Has personal lived experiences with the challenges that KP members face and uses these experiences to guide their work with members
- Hired and managed by KP-contracted intermediaries (Network Lead Entities)

How can a CHW help Medi-Cal members?

- Provides short-term, primarily in-person, non-clinical peer support to help members reach specific health goals
- Members can receive up to 6 hours of services (12 units) to start. Additional hours may be approved, if necessary.

Most KP Medi-Cal members may qualify if they need non-clinical peer support to achieve a health-related goal linked to: Physical, Social, or Behavioral Health, Disability, and Domestic or Community Violence Prevention. Members will not be able to receive CHW services if they are simultaneously enrolled in other Medi-Cal programs offering similar services, such as ECM.
