

ADDENDUM

Attention: Kaiser Permanente Medicare health plan members

Important update about your 2023 Kaiser Permanente health plan coverage as a result of the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022:

Effective April 1, 2023, you may pay a lower cost-sharing for certain Medicare Part B prescription drugs with price increases higher than inflation.

Effective July 1, 2023, you won't pay more than $35 for a one-month supply of insulin covered under Medicare Part B.

Note: You don't need to take any action in response to this update and you'll receive these benefits automatically as part of your plan.
