Non-formulary pregabalin (Lyrica) will be covered on the prescription drug benefit when the following criteria are met:

1. Diagnosis of Seizure Disorder on Problem List
   - OR-

2. Diagnosis of Neuropathy (a condition affecting the nerves) on the Problem List - AND -
   - Prior adequate trial and failure of formulary tricyclic antidepressant (TCA)^, gabapentin, DULoxetine and 2 other agents, which may include: formulary TCA^, tramADol, anticonvulsant, opioid, topical lidocaine, capsaicin, serotonin/norepinephrine reuptake inhibitor (SNRI) [total of 5 agents]
   - OR-

3. Diagnosis of Fibromyalgia or Myofascial Pain Syndrome on the Problem List -AND –
   - Prior adequate trial and failure of formulary TCA^ or cyclobenzaprine, gabapentin, DULoxetine, and 2 other agents, which may include: formulary TCA^, cyclobenzaprine, tramADol, anticonvulsant, formulary selective serotonin reuptake inhibitor (SSRI)*, venlafaxine, milnacipran [total of 5 agents].
   - OR-

4. Diagnosis of Restless Leg Syndrome on Problem List - AND –
   - Prescribed by Sleep Specialist -AND-
   - Documented treatment failure, inadequate response, intolerance or contraindication to ropinirole or pramipexole -AND-
   - Prior adequate trial or intolerance to immediate-release gabapentin
   - OR-

5. Dose change only: Patient previously met criteria and is already taking the drug.

* Formulary SSRIs = citalopram, fluoxetine, paroxetine, sertraline, escitalopram
^ Formulary TCAs = nortriptyline, desipramine, amitriptyline.

Conversion Criteria

Diabetic Peripheral Neuropathy, Fibromyalgia and Musculoskeletal pain and not currently taking SSRI:

1. Adequate trial of gabapentin -AND-
2. Trial of SNRI -OR-
3. Trial of tricyclic

Any other indication and/or currently on an SSRI:

1. Adequate trial of gabapentin